NGO Internship

“In a world of lies and liars, an honest work of art is always an act of social responsibility.”

— Robert McKee

SIESCOMS, in association with Youth on the move NGO, The Shri Shashwat Foundation, and all other NGO'S mentioned below successfully conducted the Hybrid NGO Internship 2021-22. After 2 weeks of working actively with their mentors successfully presented their work on 29th November 2020. Each team demonstrated their study meticulously and provided beneficial solutions for uplifting backward communities in a sustainable manner. A set of panelists had a Q&A session with each team to get a thorough understanding on their Work with the NGO as well as advised students on areas of improvement.

METHODOLOGY

For the presentation, there was the main link for the introduction of the NGO Internships presentation event. Thereafter the 35 teams were segregated into 4 channels i.e., 4 meeting links. on MS Teams in a set of 9 teams in order to complete the entire event within the time frame of 4 hours from 9 AM to 1 PM. Each team had 15 minutes to present their paper. After 15 minutes a the buzzer alarm would be sounded. for the main link - 1 singer for the opening prayer

For each channel there was assigned the following:

- 1 Core Coordinator as the host of the event and 1 as the channel coordinator
- 1 external panelist from the corporate social department for evaluating each team in the particular panel.
- 1 internal faculty as the 2nd panelist for evaluation

The event leader was the host of the main link and overseeing each channel and ensuring that the work was flowing smoothly. The channel coordinators formed a WhatsApp group with each of the Team Leaders who were under their channel to communicate all information regarding their presentation smoothly. responsible for timing each team's time and setting a buzzer alarm when the time limit was up

They also coordinated with the panelists and the mentor of their respective channels for conveying information and communication. The hosts were for each team.
